Cruise Overview

Join Daniel's on this roundtrip tour from North Georgia as we make our way to the Pacific Northwest to journey by riverboat along the Snake River and through the Columbia River Gorge from Clarkston, WA. Guided by onboard experts, become a part of the legacy created by pioneers such as Lewis & Clark who once roamed these terrains and mesmerizing landscapes. Watch as the ship passes through the intricate lock and dam system, witness firsthand the marvel of human engineering that tames these mighty rivers. Gaze in awe at the towering silhouette of Mount St. Helens, guarding the horizon, its very presence a testament to the tempestuous power that shaped the Pacific Northwest four decades ago. Explore Astoria, OR, the oldest American settlement west of the Rockies, this Pacific Coast port town is adorned with charming Victorian homes, cobblestone streets, eclectic local shops and views of mountains that disappear into the sky. Along the way, visit the ethereal cascade of Multnomah Falls, where crystalline waters plunge from 620 feet above. Ride a jet boat into the heart of Hells Canyon, the deepest canyon in North America. A variety of exciting land excursions are included at every port stop. As twilight descends, retreat to the sanctuary of your modern riverboat vessel, where lively onboard entertainment and locally curated dishes await. This itinerary takes you through a profoundly beautiful region of America, one filled with stories of expedition, adventure, and the purest forms of nature's beauty.
