

Discover the Best of Scotland and the Royal Military Tattoo

August 10 – 21, 2026

Day 1: Overnight flight to Edinburgh

Day 2: Arrival in Edinburgh

Upon arrival in Edinburgh, kick things off with a panoramic guided tour of the city's highlights, from its historic streets to breathtaking views. After lunch, visit Edinburgh Castle, perched on Castle Rock, to explore Scotland's history and treasures like the Crown Jewels. Walk along the iconic Royal Mile, stopping at St. Giles Cathedral with its stunning stained glass and Thistle Chapel. End the day with a warm welcome dinner at the hotel.

Day 3: Royal Yacht Britannia and Free Time

Start the day by stepping aboard the Royal Yacht Britannia, a fascinating glimpse into the life of the British Royal Family. Explore the elegant State Apartments and the crew's quarters on this floating palace. The afternoon is yours to enjoy Edinburgh at your own pace, whether it's shopping on Princes Street or discovering hidden gems in the Old Town. Dinner awaits back at the hotel.

Day 4: Rosslyn Chapel and Royal Military Tattoo

Visit the mystical Rosslyn Chapel in the morning, famous for its intricate carvings and connection to the Knights Templar and Holy Grail. In the evening, enjoy dinner in the city before attending the world-famous Royal Military Tattoo, an unforgettable spectacle of music and pageantry against the backdrop of Edinburgh Castle.

Day 5: Depart Edinburgh for Stirling

Bid farewell to Edinburgh as you head to Stirling. Stop at the Wallace Monument, a tribute to William Wallace, where sweeping views await after climbing the tower. In the afternoon, tour Stirling Castle, a historic stronghold that played a pivotal role in Scotland's history. Walk its ancient halls and enjoy the stories of its royal residents.

Day 6: From Stirling to Inverness

Depart Stirling and visit Scone Palace, the crowning site of Scottish kings and home to beautiful grounds and gardens. Continue to Blair Castle, a stunning white-walled Highland estate with a fascinating history and connections to the Jacobites. Arrive in Inverness in the evening, where dinner is served at the hotel.

Day 7: Dunrobin Castle and Glenmorangie Distillery

Travel north to visit Dunrobin Castle, a stately home resembling a French château, and enjoy a captivating falconry display on its grounds. Stop in the charming town of Dornoch before heading to Glenmorangie Distillery for a guided tour and whiskey tasting, a perfect way to experience Scotland's famous whisky culture.

Day 8: Elgin, Speyside Cooperage, and Culloden

Explore the ruins of Elgin Cathedral, known as the "Lantern of the North," and marvel at its stunning Gothic architecture. Visit the Speyside Cooperage to see how skilled craftsmen make whisky barrels using traditional methods. In the afternoon, tour Culloden Battlefield, the site of the last battle on British soil, and reflect on its impact on Scottish history, recently made more famous by the series Outlander.

Day 9: Loch Ness Cruise and Urquhart Castle

Depart Inverness and enjoy a scenic cruise on Loch Ness, taking in the beauty and mystery of this famous lake. Disembark at Urquhart Castle to explore its atmospheric ruins. Continue the journey with a scenic drive to the Isle of Skye, where dinner awaits at the hotel.

Day 10: Isle of Skye

Spend the day exploring the rugged beauty of Skye. Visit the Fairy Pools, known for their crystal-clear waters and magical setting, followed by Dunvegan Castle, home of Clan MacLeod. Stop at the Skye Museum of Island Life for a glimpse into traditional Highland living. End the day with dinner at the hotel.

Day 11: Glenfinnan Viaduct and Glencoe

Travel back to Edinburgh with scenic stops along the way. Marvel at the Glenfinnan Viaduct, famously featured in the Harry Potter films, and enjoy lunch en route. Pass through the dramatic landscapes of Glencoe Valley and the picturesque village of Killin. Celebrate the journey with a farewell dinner at the hotel.

Day 12: Departure For Home

Say goodbye to Scotland and transfer to the airport for your journey home, taking with you unforgettable memories of this incredible adventure.
